The lamb supply again eased with the overall quality also dropping. Apart from few drafts of better heavy trade and light heavy mainly shorn lambs much of the offering comprised smaller light and extra lambs. A smaller attendance of buyers were present. Prices were mostly weaker with better 3 and 4 score heavy trade and light heavy lambs firm to $3/head easier while the balance were $5 to $10/head cheaper.

Extra light and light lambs sold from $48 to $85/head, as light trades made $85 to $97/head. Medium and heavy trade lambs sold from $97 to $128/head with the few heavy lambs making $129.60 to $135/head. Most trade and heavy lambs to processors made 460c to 500c/kg cwt

Sheep numbers improved slightly but it was a very mixed mutton selection. Prices suffered large losses as most fell $10 to $30/head as not all the regular buyers were present or active. Only a few better woolly Merino's remained reasonably close to recent price. Light and extra light ewes sold from $21 to $73.20/head, as the better lines made $59 to $85/head. Most wethers were from $72 to $100/head. Carcase weight prices ranged from 180c to 300c/kg with an average close to 230c/kg cwt.
